About Asiacell

Asiacell holds a 15-year operating license issued by the Communications and Media Commission of Iraq in 2007 (the “License”), entitling it to build and operate a nationwide mobile telecommunications network in Iraq. In 2009, Asiacell became the first mobile provider in Iraq to achieve nationwide coverage, serving all 18 of Iraq’s governorates. Asiacell serves Iraq’s capital, Baghdad, and all other major Iraqi cities, with a network that covers 97% of the Iraqi population. Asiacell was publicly listed in the Iraqi Stock Exchange in January 2013 in a US$ 1.2 billion offering marking the largest IPO in the Middle East since 2008. Asiacell has a capital of 270 billion shares at 1.00 IQD per share. Its market capitalization exceeded US$ 5 billion at time of listing. Asiacell is the first telecommunications company in Iraq to fulfill its license obligation by listing 25% of its capital in the ISX.
